This programme (leading to the award of LLB (Hons) at 2:2 or above) meets the Bar Standards Board law degree requirements for the academic component of barrister training. The LLB (Hons) programme does not lead to a solicitors' qualification. In order to practice as a solicitor in the UK, students require 1-2 years of qualifying work experience and passing the Solicitors Qualifying Examination \(SQE\). We offer an integrated MLaw in Legal Theory and Solicitors' Practice programme which supports students to take and pass the SQE within a four year programme: the MLaw accepts transfers from the LLB programme at the end of Year 2, subject to good performance and satisfying any visa restrictions.

Please note: The University has a set of terms and conditions for all students accepting an offer to study on a course here at Bradford. This is called the Student Contract. This document sets out the Terms and Conditions which apply when an offer of a place on a programme of study at the University of Bradford is accepted. View our Student Contract for further details. Information about this programme and its modules has been published in advance of the academic year to which it applies. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information is accurate at the time of publication, but changes may occur given the interval between publishing and commencement of teaching. Any change which impacts the terms and conditions of an applicant's offer will be communicated to them.

Introduction

Our Bradford LLB Law with Business Management programme has been specifically designed to allow students to study law in a business context while satisfying professional body requirements for law degrees. At every stage of the student journey, from induction to graduation, this degree offers a rigorous academic legal education combined with a strong foundation in business studies and a thorough grounding in legal, academic and clinical skills.

Despite significant changes to the qualification route for solicitors and, to a lesser extent for barristers, the core content of any academic law degree will continue to be the seven Foundations of Legal Knowledge subjects: Criminal Law, Equity and Trusts, Law of the European Union, Obligations 1 (Contract), Obligations 2 (Tort), Property/Land Law, Public Law (Constitutional Law, Administrative Law and Human Rights Law), along with legal research skills. Students will cover all of the core subjects of all English and Welsh law degrees during the LLB Law with Business and Management degree. Additionally, the Bradford LLB offers an extensive range of options covering different areas of law and related subjects.

The dual objectives of enhancing student employability and academic achievement are central to our distinctive curriculum, building on the success of our student law clinic, the proven track record of our School of Management, and our links with third sector and private legal advice services in Bradford. Delivered by a diverse team of academic staff, with expertise in legal and management research, legal practice, and business, this LLB provides students with the tools to graduate as capable, reflective practitioners equipped for legal, law-related, business and other careers. The School of Law and Social Sciences runs the programme and the business and management modules will be taught by expert colleagues in our School of Management.

In years one and two modules are designed to develop the academic and clinical practice skills, imbue ethical awareness, and enhance your employability. In the second and third years students will have the opportunity to work in the dynamic, multicultural environment of our student law clinic, advising clients from the local community on a wide range of legal matters. The law clinic is primarily based at the local Citizens Advice Bureau, in Bradford city centre, where it was established in 2015. It has since expanded to a number of other locations and organisations including CHAS@StVincent's and Girdlington Advice Centre.

As an LLB student students will also have the option to spend an additional year studying abroad with one of our overseas partner universities or undertake a work-placement year in order to gain invaluable experience and on-the-job learning in paid employment. While the University does not arrange or guarantee student work placements on behalf of students we have comprehensive support for students seeking placements through the Careers and Employability Services - Placements and International Opportunities Teams.

Besides the rigorous academic and clinical training offered within the curriculum, our students enjoy a rich variety of extra-curricular activities and opportunities. These include participation in mock trials and moots in our Lady Hale Court Room facility, opened by Baroness Hale of Richmond in January 2020. Lady Hale was the first woman to be made a Law Lord, then Justice and finally President of the UK Supreme Court. Our students can take advantage of volunteering opportunities with a variety of advice organisations and within the university, court visits, external speakers, and there is a wide range of social and law-related events organised by our thriving Student Law Society. Supported by our dedicated colleagues in the Careers Service, students will also have the chance to obtain career mentoring and work experience through our links to our local legal, business, and not-for-profit sectors.

Learning and Teaching Strategy

This undergraduate programme is designed to promote progressive learning and skills development through the Stages (years) of the degree. Knowledge and understanding of law and aspects of business and management will be developed alongside legal and transferable clinical skills. Throughout their studies students will experience a diverse range of learning activities designed to nurture their capacity for critical analysis, reflective practice, and professionalism. The overriding objectives of the programme are to provide a rigorous academic legal education in a business-focused context, develop professional competencies and attributes and enhance graduate employability.

The step-by-step development of legal academic, clinical, and professional skills is embedded in the curriculum in two complementary skills-based modules, Introduction to Legal Skills (ILS) and Clinical and Employability Skills in Context (CESC). These are woven together with the substantive law modules throughout Stages 1 and 2. Throughout Stage 1 of the LLB programme, Introduction to Legal Skills (ILS) provides a solid grounding in legal research, professionalism and legal ethics, legal careers, and legal skills, drawing, where appropriate for context and content, on growing understanding of Contract, Tort, and Human Rights. ILS introduces students to clinical legal skills by conducting legal research into a client problem. Students will then draft advice letters and letters before action, leading to advocacy exercises where they have to argue a client's case. ILS also introduces legal and law-related careers, the transferability of skills, and the attributes of employability, including reflective practice, professionalism, and effective collaboration.

In the first semester of Stage 2, Clinical and Employability Skills in Context (CESC) develops and deepens each of the areas covered in ILS, focusing on clinical competencies and future employability. This will help students explore potential options after graduation and prepare for the Law Clinic module option in the final year. CESC uses anonymised cases from the student law clinic to introduce students to interviewing and advising through role-play simulations, as well as further developing practical legal research and letter drafting skills. CESC additionally builds on ILS by exploring legal, law-related and other careers and employability attributes in greater depth.

We deploy a variety of teaching and learning activities to suit diverse learning styles and the demands of specific modules, and to ensure an appropriate balance within and across the three Stages of the LLB degree. These include some traditional lectures in most modules to introduce and explain the different topics and traditional tutorials (for which students have to prepare through reading and research). At each stage, across the full range of modules, there are also interactive lectures, practical, skills-based workshops, including team-based learning, in-class presentations, mini-moots and different forms of collaborative group work. We invite a number of outside speakers (some University alumni) including lawyers, business and management professionals, and judges, to provide practitioner insight and context. All modules are supported by materials provided through our Virtual Learning Environment, including, for example, a module handbook, session handouts, power point slides, sample questions, model answers, and reading lists and by a dedicated module leader who will be available to support student learning.

Assessment Strategy

The programme assessment strategy is based on principles of academic rigour, diversity and inclusion. We employ a range of formative and summative assessment tasks which are designed to help students develop and demonstrate understanding and skills as set out in the staged learning outcomes for each module and for the Programme overall. The formative assessment strategy includes monitoring learning throughout each semester, using a range of class activities, tutorials and coursework. Formative feedback may cover reports, essays, reflective notes, literature reviews, oral presentations, and group and individual tasks.

Summative assessment similarly comprises a variety of tasks, including essays and problem-solving coursework, advocacy exercises, portfolios of work, reflective logs, interviews and advice letters, clinic case reports, guides to legal rights, oral presentations, multiple choice question examinations, open book examinations, seen scenario examinations, and unseen examinations. We have designed our programme to ensure that students are not over assessed and that the assessment contributes to learning in a meaningful way. Our assessments are designed to encourage students to think critically about legal and business and management problems.

Curriculum

The Law with Business and Management programme consists of 360 credits, made up of core modules and optional modules. Students take 120 credits at each Stage. Each 'Stage' or taught 'academic year' of an Honours programme consists of two semesters. Out of the 360 credits over Stages 1-3 of your LLB (Hons) Law with Business and Management degree at least 100 must be business and management related.

Students will cover six of the essential seven Foundations of Legal Knowledge (FLK) at Stage 1 and 2 permitting maximum flexibility and optionality at Stage 3. There are seven FLK areas (determined by the English legal sector) which we teach over 8 core modules:

- Contract Law (LAW4007-B / BIC4025-B)
- Law of Tort (LAW4012-B / BIC4024-B)
- Public Law (LAW4011-B / BIC4023-B)

- Equity & Trust (LAW5015-B)
- EU and International Law (LAW5014-B)
- Land Law (LAW5016-B)

Students may start the course directly in Stage 1 or enter our foundation years, where entrants study 120 additional RQF credits to improve knowledge and study skills, before joining stage 1.

Integrated Stage 0 and International Year 0: Level 3

Students who join before stage 1 will build a strong foundation for studying at university level. A placement with appropriate duties may count towards the Qualifying Work Experience needed to qualify as a solicitor. See the Placement Year and Study Abroad Options section for more details.

Stage 3: Level 6

In Stage 3, a dissertation or project of 20-40 credits is chosen depending on the topic (any area relevant to law and business and management), subject area and the research time wished to devote to it. For this module, students design and undertake the research themselves, under the supervision of one of the lecturers.

HRM6013-D	Final Year Business Project	40	Academic Year	Dissertation 4

After choosing a dissertation/project, students select the remaining credits from Tables 6 and 7 below. The credit balance must be equal between 60 credits of law and 60 credits of business/management in this Stage, and all students study the final Foundation of Legal Knowledge module Equity and Trust for 20 credits. For example, if students select HRM6013-D as their project, they have 60 credits overall remaining of which 1 module must be in business/management and 2 module options must be in law from Table 6. For another example, if students select LAW6026-D as their dissertation, they must select 3 business/management module options from Table 7.

In the final year students can elect to work in the Law Clinic, as a 20-credit module in either semester, or as a 40-credit module throughout the academic year. To sustain the thread of clinical and professional education that runs through years one and two, all our academic law options consider how the law operates in a practical ‘real-world’ context, besides the more purely academic and theoretical aspects.

Placement Year and Study Abroad Options

This programme provides the option for students to undertake a work placement or period of study abroad between Stages 2 and 3. Students wishing to take this option will be registered for the placement programme.

A placement with appropriate duties may count towards the Qualifying Work Experience (QWE) needed to qualify as a solicitor, along with passing the SQE. Qualifying Work Experience may be gained in England, Wales or "overseas" (including Scotland and Northern Ireland) - it does not need to cover English and Welsh law. The SRA publish more details about what can constitute QWE on their website.

We promote a placement or study abroad year as there is strong evidence as to the benefits. Research indicates that students benefit academically and professionally from a period abroad as part of their degree. There are also great opportunities for students to do shorter internships. Undergraduate students who went abroad during their studies were more likely to find a graduate job and had higher starting salaries than their non-mobile counterparts.

Further information about internships and placements and study abroad opportunities is published on the University's website. The International Opportunities team can advise students about the available funding to support their study or work experience abroad.

Work Placement Year (LAW5019-Z)

Work placements are extremely valuable in helping students to develop their understanding of all aspects of law. Students are responsible for finding a placement, but they are fully supported by our dedicated work placements team who will advertise placement vacancies, help them with applications, CV writing, interview techniques and preparing for their time in work. There are regular visits to the Faculty by representatives of both local and national companies, looking to recruit graduates.

An academic year spent in work placement provides an excellent opportunity to apply the knowledge, understanding and skills that students have developed during the earlier Stages of their programme. It will also enable students to further develop their transferable skills and may even secure their entry onto the graduate career ladder as many employers use a placement year as a method of recruitment onto their graduate training scheme. Our students are increasingly securing work placements, either during the summer vacation or for a full year in industry and the public sector.

Students taking a year's work placement will be registered on the 0-credit LAW5019-Z module and be asked to complete a reflective assessment on their return to the University.

Study Abroad Experience Year (LAW5021-Z)

Instead of a placement year, students can opt to study abroad for one year in one of our partner institutions worldwide, where students will be taught in English. Study abroad has a number of benefits, not only as a unique experience in itself but also enhancing academic insights, employability and life skills and the Faculty and the University wish to encourage it, if the circumstances are appropriate.

Any student wishing to study abroad for a year should contact at first instance the International Opportunities Team to discuss the available year abroad opportunities. The Bradford Programme leader will be informed and consulted about the exchange to ensure compliance with any Bradford programme requirements. During the exchange the students will have support from the relevant University services.

Students will be registered for the 0-credit module LAW5021-Z Study Abroad Experience and be asked to complete a reflective assessment on their return to the University.

Other Study Abroad

This programme is not eligible for Study Abroad Semester opportunities to study abroad at another University due to the design of the programme.

All students can explore opportunities for short international activities (1-6 weeks) that are held over the summer periods by speaking to the University International Opportunities team. Further information about short internships and placements and study abroad opportunities is published on the University's website.

Assessment, Continuation and Award Regulations

This programme follows the Assessment, Continuation and Award regulations for undergraduate taught courses published on the University's Website (Regulation 2).

Graduates with the degree award of LLB (hons) Law with Business and Management classified at 2:2 or above have achieved a Qualifying Law Degree for the academic purposes of the Bar Standards Board training requirements.

Eligibility for the LLB (hons) Award is contingent upon the successful completion and passing of the modules specified below (Foundations of Legal Knowledge/ "FLK") within our standard University regulations:

- Contract Law (LAW4007-B / BIC4025-B)
- Law of Tort (LAW4012-B / BIC4024-B)
- Public Law (LAW4011-B / BIC4023-B)
- Human Rights Law (LAW4008-B/BIC4022-A)
- Criminal Law (LAW5003-B)
- Equity & Trust (LAW5015-B)

- Land Law (LAW5016-B)

Students who fail or substitute these modules will not be eligible for the LLB (hons) award.

Admission Requirements

We are proud to be one of the most inclusive universities in the UK. All our students have potential, and we believe that as many people as possible should have the chance to benefit from higher education, no matter what their background or circumstances.

We take the time to understand the background of our applicants, understand their journey to education, and make decisions based on an applicant's potential to thrive at university and beyond.

Language and Level 2 Entry Requirements

As the programme is taught in English, all applicants are required to have GCSE Grade 4 (national grade C) or above in English Language. Alternative, equivalent RQF Level 2 qualifications like Key Skills are also acceptable if equivalent.

For international students, the level of English required is listed on the University of Bradford English language requirements website. International applicants who do not meet the IELTS requirement can take a University of Bradford pre-session English course, which takes 3 to 10 weeks, or can look at taking a pathway with our International College from one term to a year.

Academic Entry Requirements

A typical offer to someone joining the LLB Law with Business and Management programme would be different for Stage 0 entry (4/5 year programme) or Stage 1 entry (3/4 year programme):

- If you are currently studying at another university and would like to transfer to the University of Bradford, this course accepts students into Stage 2 or Stage 3. This is called advanced entry. Applications for advanced entry will be considered on a case-by-case basis and must include an official transcript (not a screenshot of a portal), all module descriptors, and relevant qualifications. Module descriptors must include learning outcomes. Applications must be submitted through Ucas and the required documents emailed along with your Ucas Personal ID no later than 31 August prior to the course starting in September. Relevant documents should be emailed to admissions@bradford.ac.uk.

We are committed to raising aspirations and widening access to higher education, regardless of your background. The University of Bradford Progression Scheme welcomes Ucas applicants from a number of groups including adult learners who are 21+ on the first day of term, British armed forces families, carers and care experienced learners, estranged or orphaned learners, refugees and asylum seekers, and Romani or Traveller family members.

On completion of a UCAS form students will be invited to the Faculty for an Open Day where they will have the opportunity to meet staff, view the facilities and discuss “the Bradford experience” with current students.

Access and Recognition of Prior Learning

Applications are welcome from students with non-traditional qualifications, and/or significant personal/professional experience. For such applicants, evidence of their interests and work experience would be required and assessed by an interview.
